Method TIMES = THE MOMENT IN THE VIDEO

1. Pour the almond milk into a small saucepan over medium heat. Add a few cut pieces of fresh turmeric root, if you have it. 1:06
2. Crush the cloves lightly in a mortar and add them with the cinnamon, ginger, black pepper and turmeric. 1:36
3. Bring to a gentle simmer and let the spices infuse for 1½–2 minutes. 2:33
4. Take off the heat, strain through a fine sieve if you prefer it smooth, and pour into two cups. Stir ½ tsp honey into each. 3:28

> Tip Without fresh turmeric root, use an extra ¼ tbsp ground turmeric. Dairy or soy milk works too and adds protein. Add the honey after taking it off the heat.
