Method

TIMES = THE MOMENT IN THE VIDEO

1. Put the chopped tomatillos, chile and coriander in a blender with ⅓ cup water. Blend, starting on low, to a coarse, slushy purée that still has some texture. 0:22
2. Add the avocado and some of the salt and blend again until smooth and creamy; the avocado thickens the salsa. 2:55
3. Pour into a bowl and stir in about 1 tbsp more water if it needs loosening to a spoonable consistency. 3:45
4. Rinse the chopped onion in a sieve under cold water, shake it dry and stir it in rather than blending it (blended, it takes over). Taste and add the rest of the salt. 3:53
5. Serve within a few hours, on tacos (especially steak), eggs, grilled fish or prawns.

> Tip Start with half a jalapeño or one serrano and add more to taste. Best eaten the day it's made. We count about 2 cups (18 portions) from the ingredient weights; the written recipe says about 1½ cups.
