Method TIMES = THE MOMENT IN THE VIDEO

1. Cut the broccoli into even florets through the stems, rinse 1–2 minutes under cold water, then pat completely dry on a cloth so it sears instead of steaming. 1:00
2. Heat a large dry pan over medium-high heat for 3–4 minutes, then add 2 tbsp olive oil and the florets and toss to coat. 2:58
3. Spread the broccoli in a single layer and leave it untouched for 2 minutes to sear, then turn the florets and sear 2 minutes more. 4:07
4. Stir in the garlic for about 30 seconds, then add the broth, season, cover and simmer on medium heat 3–4 minutes until the broth is absorbed and a toothpick goes in easily. 4:42
5. Serve with lemon wedges. 6:14

> Tip Drying the florets well is what gives them a crusty sear. Water works instead of broth and keeps it lower in sodium.

The method is a summary in our words — the video shows every step.
