Method TIMES = THE MOMENT IN THE VIDEO

1. Heat the oven to 175°C. Butter two 150 ml ramekins and set them in a deep baking dish lined with a tea towel so they don't slide. 1:16
2. Whisk the whole egg, egg yolk, whole milk, cream and ¼ tsp salt until completely smooth. 0:36
3. Whisk in the grated parmesan, the cheddar, the extra pinch of salt and a big pinch of pepper. 1:01
4. Pour the custard into the ramekins and drop the cooked, crumbled bacon on top. 1:35
5. Pour hot water into the dish to come about 2.5 cm up the sides. Bake 30–35 minutes, until a toothpick in the centre comes out clean. 1:39
6. Lift out and rest for about 15 minutes; they should still wobble a little but not be runny. Eat warm. 2:45

> Tip Serves 2 (one ramekin each; our estimate). For a sweet version the cook skips the cheese, bacon and pepper and adds 2 tsp vanilla extract (not strict carnivore). He says bone broth can replace the milk if you're lactose intolerant.

The method is a summary in our words — the video shows every step.
