Method TIMES = THE MOMENT IN THE VIDEO

1. Rinse the chicken, cut each breast in half crosswise, then cut deep slits about ½ inch apart across each piece so it opens like an accordion. Sprinkle with the salt, add the milk, mix and refrigerate for at least 30 minutes. 1:26
2. Mix the soy sauce, gochugaru, gochujang, garlic, ginger and black pepper into a paste. 3:05
3. Lift the chicken out of the milk and tuck the apple slices into the slits. Lay the pieces in a shallow pan with any leftover apple, spread the paste on top and pour in 2½ cups water. 4:41
4. Cover and cook over medium-high heat for 15 minutes. 5:40
5. Add the potato, onion and green chilli so they sit in the liquid. Cover, turn the heat to medium and cook 15 minutes more until the potato is tender; add a little water if it reduces too much. 8:08
6. Add the green onions, turn the heat up to medium-high and let it bubble for about 1 minute. Serve straight from the pan. 9:30

> Tip The cook serves it with rice and a spicy cucumber side salad. Spoon the broth and potato over the rice. Chicken thighs work too for a richer version.
