Allergens found in the listed ingredients: none. Worked out from the ingredient list, not tested. Stock, sauces, spice mixes and other packaged foods can contain allergens, so always read the labels on what you buy. If you have a food allergy, don't rely on this.

Method TIMES = THE MOMENT IN THE VIDEO

1. Quarter the cauliflower, cut out the stem at an angle and pop off the florets. Cut them to an even size and rinse. 1:01
2. Bring about 1 inch of water to a boil in a pot fitted with a steamer insert, add the cauliflower, cover and steam 6–8 minutes, until tender but not mushy. Chop the herbs. 1:47
3. Warm 1 tbsp olive oil in a small pan, mince in the garlic and stir about 30 seconds, then take it off the heat. 2:37
4. Drain the cauliflower, add the garlic oil and herbs and mash with a potato masher (or a stick blender for a smoother mash). Season with salt and pepper. 2:50

> Tip Steam rather than boil, and stop while it still has a little bite, so the mash isn't watery.

The method is a summary in our words — the video shows every step.
