Method TIMES = THE MOMENT IN THE VIDEO

1. Rinse the Brussels sprouts in cold water and dry them completely with a clean towel, so they roast rather than steam. 0:46
2. Heat the oven to 425°F. Trim just a sliver off each base and halve the sprouts, keeping any loose outer leaves (they turn extra crisp). 1:27
3. Tip them onto a baking tray, drizzle with the oil, season with about ½ tsp salt and ¼ tsp pepper and toss with your hands. 2:05
4. Turn every sprout cut side down so the faces caramelise, scattering the loose leaves in between. 2:39
5. Roast 25–30 minutes, turning the tray (not the sprouts) halfway through. 3:09

> Tip Cut side down is the whole secret: that's where the deep golden, sweet edge comes from.

The method is a summary in our words — the video shows every step.
