Method TIMES = THE MOMENT IN THE VIDEO

1. Heat the oil in a large pan over medium heat. Add the onion, curry leaves, cumin and mustard seeds, cover and cook about 2 minutes until the onion is translucent. 1:06
2. Meanwhile dry-roast the fennel seeds in a small pan over very low heat until they darken and smell fragrant; cool for 5 minutes and grind to a fine powder. 1:29
3. Add the chicken, the salt and the chilli, mix well, cover and cook for 15–20 minutes, stirring once or twice. 1:52
4. Add the curry powder and turmeric, mix well and cook uncovered for 5 minutes. 2:38
5. Pour in the hot water (about a cup per person), bring to the boil, cover and simmer on low for 5 minutes. 3:00
6. Add the potatoes, garlic, ginger and fennel powder, check the salt, bring back to the boil, then cover and simmer on low for 15–25 minutes until the potatoes are very tender. Garnish with coriander. 3:30

> Tip Serve with rice, roti or puri. The cook adds about a cup of water per person; use less for a thicker gravy. Keeps 3 days in the fridge.
