Method TIMES = THE MOMENT IN THE VIDEO

1. Heat the oven to 350 °F. Crack the eggs into a medium bowl and whisk with a fork until the yolks and whites are combined. 0:37
2. Add the mozzarella — shredding your own avoids the starch coating on bagged cheese — and the freshly grated parmesan. 0:59
3. Add the onion powder, garlic powder and Italian seasoning and mix with a spatula until crumbly, then press it together with your hands into a ball of dough. 1:36
4. Splash a little water on an 7 × 11 inch tray so the baking paper stays put, lay the paper on, spray it, and press the dough out evenly to the edges. 2:20
5. Bake about 25 minutes until the top is golden. 3:00
6. Let it cool to room temperature, then cut into 8–10 pieces with a pizza cutter. 3:18

> Tip Good dipped in sugar-free pizza or marinara sauce, or split and used for a sandwich. It is salty from the parmesan, so no extra salt is needed.
