Allergens found in the listed ingredients: Egg, Milk, Tree nuts. Worked out from the ingredient list, not tested. Stock, sauces, spice mixes and other packaged foods can contain allergens, so always read the labels on what you buy. If you have a food allergy, don't rely on this.

Method TIMES = THE MOMENT IN THE VIDEO

1. Heat the oven to 350°F. Line an 8 inch square dish with baking paper and coat it with baking spray. 3:19
2. Microwave the butter and sugar-free chocolate chips in a large bowl for 1–2 minutes, until the butter melts, then whisk into a smooth chocolate sauce. 0:41
3. Add the confectioners erythritol, cocoa powder, almond flour, protein powder and a pinch of salt. Mix with a spatula until crumbly. 1:28
4. Mix in the eggs one at a time until a thick batter forms. Fold in a handful of walnuts if you like. 3:02
5. Spread the batter evenly in the dish and scatter a few more walnuts on top (optional). 3:27
6. Bake about 25 minutes, until a toothpick comes out with moist crumbs rather than wet batter. Cool completely in the dish, then cut into 9 squares. 3:45

> Tip No protein powder? Use another ¾ oz almond flour instead, as the cook suggests; monk fruit sweetener works in place of erythritol. Slightly underbaking keeps them fudgier.
