Method TIMES = THE MOMENT IN THE VIDEO

1. Trim the zucchini and cut into 1 cm cubes. Finely chop the onion, garlic, tomatoes, chillies and epazote. 0:35
2. Heat a little oil in a wide pot and cook the onion over medium heat for 3–4 minutes until translucent. Add the garlic for just a minute so it doesn't turn bitter. 1:21
3. Add the tomatoes, chillies and a pinch of salt and cook for about 5 minutes over medium heat until half broken down. 1:51
4. Stir in the zucchini, corn, epazote and the rest of the salt. Cover and cook over medium-low for about 20 minutes, until tender but still al dente. 2:19
5. Turn off the heat and leave the pot covered for another 20 minutes so the zucchini finish cooking in their own heat without falling apart. Serve warm with crumbled queso fresco or panela, and a little crema if you like. 2:55

> Tip Serves 4 (our estimate). Coriander can stand in for epazote. For a lighter plate skip the crema or use a spoon of Greek yoghurt. Keeps 3 days in the fridge.
