2. Beat the softened butter with the granulated erythritol, beat in the eggs and vanilla, then the almond milk. Stir in the dry ingredients, spread the batter in the pan and scatter over the blueberries. 0:47
3. Beat the cream cheese, powdered erythritol, egg and lemon extract until smooth and spread it over the berries. 2:24
4. Rub the streusel almond flour, cinnamon, erythritol and cold butter together into crumbs and scatter over the top. 3:04
5. Bake for 35–40 minutes until the edges are golden, then cool for 30 minutes before cutting into 16 bars. 3:47
6. If you like, whisk the drizzle cream cheese with the erythritol and almond milk and drizzle over the cooled bars. 3:52

> Tip Store in the fridge because of the cream cheese layer, and freeze extra bars individually. The drizzle is optional and can be left off.
