Method TIMES = THE MOMENT IN THE VIDEO

1. Separate the cauliflower florets from the stalks and wash well. Rice the florets in a food processor (grater attachment) and cut the stalks into small cubes like potato. 0:55
2. Boil the stalk cubes in salted water for 5–10 minutes until tender, then lift them out. 1:44
3. Dry-roast the peanuts in a frying pan until golden and set aside. In the same pan heat the olive oil and butter. 2:05
4. Add the mustard seeds; when they pop, add the curry leaves and onion with a pinch of salt. Stir in the turmeric, then the roasted peanuts and green chilli, and cook the spices for about a minute. 2:39
5. Add the riced cauliflower, season with salt, add a splash of water, cover and cook 5–10 minutes until tender. 3:41
6. Stir in the boiled stalk cubes and finish with fresh coriander and a big squeeze of lime juice. 4:15

> Tip The cook's written recipe uses 30 g peanuts; the video uses 20 g. Halve the onion to trim the carbs further. Vegan if you use oil instead of butter.

The method is a summary in our words — the video shows every step.
