Method TIMES = THE MOMENT IN THE VIDEO

1. Put the butter, brown sugar-free sweetener, water and ½ tsp salt in a saucepan over medium heat and bring to a boil. 0:25
2. Keep cooking, stirring often, until it reaches 150°C on a candy thermometer. The cold-water test doesn't work with sugar-free sweetener, so use a thermometer. 0:53
3. Take it off the heat and work fast: stir in the vanilla, pour into a quarter sheet pan or square dish sprayed with oil and lined with baking paper, and spread evenly. 2:44
4. Leave it a few minutes until the toffee turns opaque, then scatter the chocolate chips over it and cover with foil for 4–5 minutes to melt them (or broil 30–60 seconds). 3:04
5. Spread the melted chocolate over the toffee and top with flaky salt and crushed pecans. 3:42
6. Refrigerate for 1–2 hours until set, then break into about 20 pieces. 3:53

> Tip Use brown sugar-free sweetener for the classic toffee colour; the cook found plain granulated sweetener tasted good but stayed pale. It keeps a long time in a sealed container.
