Method TIMES = THE MOMENT IN THE VIDEO

1. Heat the oven to 200°C. Measure out the pecans, cut the butter into pieces and have the sweetener and cream ready. 0:36
2. Spread the pecans on a baking sheet lined with baking paper and roast for a couple of minutes, just until fragrant. 1:46
3. Meanwhile melt all but 1 tbsp of the butter in a pan over medium heat, add the sweetener and cream, and keep stirring so it doesn't burn until it turns a caramel colour. 2:04
4. Turn off the heat and stir in the reserved butter and the vanilla until melted. 2:52
5. Tip in the roasted pecans and stir to coat them in the praline mixture. 3:13
6. Drop tablespoons onto a lined baking sheet to make about 12 pralines and refrigerate for about 1 hour, until set. 3:27

> Tip The cook says 230 g of cream in the video, but his written recipe and notes confirm 120 ml is right. Keep the pralines in the fridge.
