Method TIMES = THE MOMENT IN THE VIDEO

1. Two-thirds fill a large pot with water, add the vinegar and 1 tbsp salt and boil. Remove the outer leaves and core and simmer the cabbage 5 minutes a side, loosening the leaves. Keep 2 cups of the water, drain, cool and peel off the leaves. 0:45
2. Sauce: soften the onion and carrot in half the oil for 3–4 minutes, then stir in the crushed tomatoes, cream, oregano and salt and simmer until bubbly. 1:48
3. Pulse the cauliflower florets in a food processor (or grate them) into rice-sized pieces. 2:27
4. Mix the pork, cauliflower rice, egg, cheddar, salt, pepper and ½ cup of the sauce. Shave the thick stem of each leaf flat, put about 2 tbsp filling at the stem end, fold in the sides and roll up. 3:10
5. Pack the rolls seam-side down in a Dutch oven, pour over the remaining sauce and about 1 cup of the cabbage water. Cover and bake at 350 °F for 1¼–1½ hours, adding more water halfway if it looks dry. 4:03

> Tip Instead of boiling, you can freeze the cored cabbage overnight and thaw it — the leaves then peel off easily. The cook also simmers them on the stove for about an hour, or slow-cooks them 8 hours on low.
