Method TIMES = THE MOMENT IN THE VIDEO

1. Season the chicken pieces with salt and pepper. Brown them in the oil in a wide, shallow pot, turning until well coloured on all sides, then lift out. 1:10
2. In the same pot, cook the onion 8–10 minutes until lightly browned. Add the garlic and ginger for 30 seconds. 2:47
3. Add the coriander, cumin, turmeric, chilli powder, paprika and bay leaves and toast briefly, then stir in the tomato paste and diced tomatoes. 3:33
4. Pour in the coconut milk, return the chicken and its juices, add the stock or water and season with salt and pepper. 4:32
5. Cover, bring to the boil, then simmer on low about 15 minutes until the chicken is cooked through. Uncover and boil on high a few minutes to thicken the sauce. 5:31
6. Stir in the yoghurt (if using), the coriander and lemon juice, check the seasoning and serve. 6:15

> Tip Serves about 6 at two pieces each (our estimate). Serve with basmati rice, or with cauliflower rice to keep it low-carb. Leave out the yoghurt for a dairy-free curry.

The method is a summary in our words — the video shows every step.
