Allergens found in the listed ingredients: none. Worked out from the ingredient list, not tested. Stock, sauces, spice mixes and other packaged foods can contain allergens, so always read the labels on what you buy. If you have a food allergy, don't rely on this.

Method TIMES = THE MOMENT IN THE VIDEO

1. Finely chop the onion, garlic and coriander, and cut the beans into short pieces. 0:58
2. Warm the olive oil in a pot over medium heat and cook the onion until soft and translucent. 1:14
3. Add the garlic and coriander, season with salt and pepper and stir for a minute until fragrant. 1:36
4. Stir in the tomato paste and let it cook into the oil for a few seconds. 2:20
5. Add the green beans and the chopped tomatoes and toss well. Cover and cook on low heat, stirring now and then, until the beans are tender and the tomatoes have melted into the oil. 2:45
6. Stir in the lemon juice, taste for salt and serve warm or at room temperature.

> Tip Serves about 4 as a side (our estimate). In Jordan, Lebanon and Syria it is eaten at room temperature with bread; add a can of chickpeas or serve with grilled meat for a full meal. Keeps 3 days in the fridge.

The method is a summary in our words, in English — the video (in Arabic) shows every step.
