Method TIMES = THE MOMENT IN THE VIDEO

1. Heat the oven to 400°F. Halve the tomatoes and olives, slice the zucchini very thinly so it softens in time, and thinly slice the shallot and lemon. 0:30
2. Cut four large sheets of baking paper and fold each in half to mark the centre line. 3:22
3. On one half of each sheet lay a bed of zucchini, set a cod fillet on top and season with salt and pepper. Cover the fish with 2–3 lemon slices and some shallot. 3:46
4. Scatter the tomatoes and olives around the fish, add a thyme sprig and finish with a drizzle of olive oil. 4:05
5. Fold the paper over and crimp the edges tightly all the way round in a half-moon shape so no steam escapes. Place the parcels on a baking tray. 4:26
6. Bake 14–18 minutes depending on thickness (thinner or frozen fillets need the shorter time). Cut the parcels open at the table, taking care with the steam, and spoon all the juices over the fish. 5:30

> Tip Baby spinach works instead of zucchini as the base, and capers can replace the olives. The cook serves it with lentils; for a keto plate add cauliflower rice or a green salad. Snapper or barramundi work too.

The method is a summary in our words — the video shows every step.
