Method TIMES = THE MOMENT IN THE VIDEO

1. Heat the oven to 400°F. Cut the zucchini into half-moons, the pepper and red onion into chunks and the broccolini into even pieces, and put them in a large bowl. 1:03
2. Cut the chicken into bite-size pieces so it cooks quickly without drying out, and add it to the vegetables. 2:35
3. Add the garlic, oregano, paprika, ground coriander, salt and pepper, the lemon zest and juice, the vinegar and a generous drizzle of olive oil. Toss well, using your hands if easier. 3:05
4. Lightly oil a large sheet pan and spread everything in a single layer so it all touches the pan and roasts evenly. 4:56
5. Roast for 20–25 minutes until the chicken is cooked through and the vegetables are tender and lightly charred. 5:23

> Tip Serves 5 (her written recipe). The video description says 3 lb chicken, but the video and her written recipe use 1½ lb. Thighs work too. Keeps 3–4 days in the fridge; serve over rice, quinoa or farro.
