Method TIMES = THE MOMENT IN THE VIDEO

1. Soak the dried fava beans for 3 hours in plenty of water with the baking soda, then rinse and drain. 2:15
2. Put the beans in a pot with the washed lentils, a whole tomato and ¼ tsp cumin. Cover with about 1 litre of boiling water, bring to the boil, then cover and simmer on the lowest heat for 4–6 hours until the beans and their skins are tender. 2:44
3. Drain, keeping about half a cup of the cooking liquid with the beans; this makes roughly 470 ml of plain ful. 3:32
4. For the Alexandrian dressing, dice the tomatoes and red onion, mince the garlic and chop the green chillies. 4:19
5. Combine the warm ful with the vegetables, olive oil, lemon juice, salt, cumin, pepper and chilli powder. Mix well, taste and adjust, and finish with coriander or parsley. Serve warm with bread or pita. 4:36

> Tip Serves 4 is our estimate. The video dresses 240 ml of ful; the dressing here is doubled for the 470 ml batch. Short on time: warm 2 × 400 g cans of cooked ful and go straight to the dressing.
