Method TIMES = THE MOMENT IN THE VIDEO

1. Season the haddock fillets with ¼ tsp salt and ⅛ tsp pepper. 0:55
2. Warm the olive oil, sliced garlic and pepper flakes in a large skillet over medium heat until sizzling. Add the onion, bay leaf and ¼ tsp salt and cook 2–3 minutes until the onion softens. 1:12
3. Add the tomatoes and cook 2–3 minutes more until they begin to soften. 2:40
4. Pour in the water and wine, add the parsley stems and half the chopped parsley, and bring to a boil. 2:58
5. Nestle the fillets skin-side down in the liquid, spoon some over the top, cover and simmer very gently 3–7 minutes until the fish reaches about 43°C. 3:31
6. Slide the pan off the heat and leave covered 5 minutes to finish cooking (57°C). Discard the stems and bay leaf, sprinkle with the rest of the parsley and serve in shallow bowls with the broth. 4:34

> Tip Any firm white fish works; keep the skin on for a silkier broth. Serve with crusty wholegrain bread for dunking, or a few boiled potatoes to soak up the liquid.

The method is a summary in our words — the video shows every step.
