Method TIMES = THE MOMENT IN THE VIDEO

1. Pull the stems off the hot and mild peppers, leaving them whole with their seeds, and put them in a food processor with the peeled garlic cloves. 0:22
2. Add the lemon juice, salt and ground cumin and process until fairly smooth. 1:09
3. Roughly chop the coriander, add it and process again until you have a paste that still has a little texture. 1:31
4. With the motor running, drizzle in the olive oil. Spoon into a clean jar and keep in the fridge for up to 2 weeks. 1:58

> Tip It is very hot: swap some of the hot chillies for more sweet peppers to tame it. Great with shawarma, kebabs, eggs or grilled meat. Makes about 1¾ cups (our estimate from the batch weight).
