Method

TIMES = THE MOMENT IN THE VIDEO

1. Leave the cream cheese out for a few hours until very soft, then put it in a bowl. 0:41
2. Push the trout fillets to one side of a board and crumble them into small pieces, feeling for any small bones as you go. Add the trout to the cream cheese. 1:17
3. Add the whole capers, horseradish, black pepper, a little salt, the cayenne, lemon juice, chives and dill. 1:53
4. Mash and mix with a fork against the side of the bowl until as rustic or smooth as you like; don't whip it. 3:23
5. Pack into a ramekin, press plastic wrap onto the surface and chill for about 2 hours. Taste and adjust the salt, lemon or heat, then serve with radishes, cucumber, crackers or rye bread. 4:19

> Tip Serves not given by the cook; 6 portions of about 2 oz is our estimate. Smoked fish is salty, so taste before adding salt. Keeps 3–4 days in the fridge. Smoked salmon works too.
