Method TIMES = THE MOMENT IN THE VIDEO

1. Drain the chicken well and mix it in a bowl with the tamarind juice, turmeric, chilli powder, cumin, coriander and salt. Marinate for 30 minutes (in the fridge if longer). Keep the bowl unwashed. 1:59
2. Heat 4 tbsp oil in a large pan or wok over low heat. Fry the curry leaves, pandan, cinnamon and cardamom for 10–15 seconds, then the ginger and garlic for a minute. 3:01
3. Add the green chillies and onions and cook over low-medium heat for about 3 minutes until soft. Add the tomatoes and stir until they break down. 3:34
4. Add the chicken and cook over low-medium heat until the liquid it releases is absorbed. Add 1 tbsp oil and sear the chicken for 2 minutes. 4:13
5. Swirl the 120 ml water around the marinade bowl and pour it in. Simmer gently for 25–30 minutes until the water has reduced. 4:58
6. Stir in the coconut milk, season with salt and cook on low for 5–7 minutes more, without boiling hard. 5:11

> Tip Serve with rice, bread or roti. The cook used a little less coconut milk in the video for a thicker curry. 3 tbsp Sri Lankan curry powder can replace the cumin and coriander.
