Allergens found in the listed ingredients: Fish. Worked out from the ingredient list, not tested. Stock, sauces, spice mixes and other packaged foods can contain allergens, so always read the labels on what you buy. If you have a food allergy, don't rely on this.

Method TIMES = THE MOMENT IN THE VIDEO

1. Bring the stock and salt to a boil, add the chicken and simmer gently for about 15 minutes, until fork-tender. 1:20
2. Meanwhile slice the galangal into thin rounds, smash the lemongrass and cut it into chunks, tear the lime leaves and bruise the chillies. 3:05
3. Add the coconut milk, all the aromatics, half the fish sauce and the palm sugar, then the mushrooms. Simmer 4–5 minutes to infuse. 4:52
4. Turn off the heat and stir in the lime juice. Taste, then add the rest of the fish sauce and a little more lime if needed. 8:49
5. Garnish with coriander. Remove some of the galangal, lemongrass and lime leaves, and let diners know the rest are for flavour only. 9:37

> Tip Serves about 4 (our estimate). Pailin uses oyster mushrooms (straw mushrooms are traditional) and often adds jasmine rice to her bowl; leave the rice out to keep it keto. Galangal is essential; ginger tastes different.

The method is a summary in our words — the video shows every step.
