Method TIMES = THE MOMENT IN THE VIDEO

1. Drain the tuna well and put it in a large bowl. 0:33
2. Add the eggs, onion, carrot, oats, parsley, oregano, salt and pepper and stir until evenly combined. 1:35
3. With your hands, shape the mixture into eight patties about ½ inch thick. 2:30
4. Heat the olive oil in a frying pan over medium heat and fry the patties about 4 minutes a side until golden and crisp. Keep the heat moderate so the centres cook through before the outsides burn. 3:05
5. Serve warm with a dipping sauce: the cook makes a Greek-yoghurt tartar sauce, guacamole and an olive-oil garlic aioli. 3:49

> Tip Any canned fish or leftover baked fish works. The cook serves them with a Greek-yoghurt tartar sauce, guacamole or garlic aioli. Keeps 3 days in the fridge; use certified gluten-free oats if needed.
