Method TIMES = THE MOMENT IN THE VIDEO

1. Pulse the garlic in a food processor until finely minced. Add most of the sun-dried tomatoes (keep 2 for garnish) with their oil, topped up with olive oil to ¼ cup, and pulse until finely chopped. 0:35
2. Add the drained beans, crumbled feta and a pinch of chilli flakes and blend until smooth, scraping down the sides. 1:22
3. Add the lemon juice, water, oregano and a little salt and blend again until creamy. Taste: add more salt, lemon or water to get the flavour and thickness you like. 2:44
4. Spread in a shallow dish. Drizzle with olive oil and top with capers, chilli flakes, the reserved sun-dried tomatoes (sliced) and a little crumbled feta. 3:53
5. Serve with pita, toasted bread or sliced peppers, cucumbers and other raw vegetables.

> Tip For a vegan dip leave out the feta and add a little more salt. Roasted red peppers can replace the sun-dried tomatoes, and Kalamata olives the capers. Keeps 4 days in the fridge.
